

Young Media Australia

50th Birthday Seminar & Celebrations

We invite you or your representative to join us to mark the 50th anniversary of the formation of Young Media Australia (formerly the Australian Council for Children’s Film and Television) in Melbourne in 1957. The seminar program includes:

Keynote challenge: Dr Patricia Edgar AM

“Brands are ubiquitous and the fight to resist is overwhelming for parents...We have squandered television’s capability to teach, inform and inspire. We are systematically destroying children’s bodies along with their minds. The life-affirming stories that could help them develop into socially integrated human beings have gone...” (P. Edgar in Bloodbath: A memoir of Australian television, 2006, p411)

(Dr Edgar was founding chairperson of the Children’s Program Committee of the Australian Broadcasting Tribunal and founding director of the Australian Children’s TV Foundation.)

Venue:	Australian Centre for the Moving Image Federation Square
Date:	30 March 2007
Time:	10.00am	Coffee
