

Fight-free media list: non-violent media for under sevens

For the most up-to-date list go to the Fight-free media list on the YMA website www.youngmedia.org.au

Look for these items for hire in your local library or video store. Some are available to buy from major outlets or online. In this list items have been reviewed by YMA as non-violent media—they contain no violence (people deliberately hurting other people).

Approved with Caution—they don't have any violence, but there may be some scary scenes. You might also like to know about certain content, e.g. accidental harm, distressing scenes such as when animals are in danger, and so on. Reviews on the YMA website www.youngmedia.org.au give details of these cautionary notes
